Materials You'll Need

- 14-count Aida cloth

- DMC floss in the following colors:
 - White
 - Black
 - Brown
 - Green
- A cross stitch needle
- A pair of scissors

Instructions

1. Start by centering the Aida cloth on your work area. Then, separate the strands of floss into 2-ply strands. You will only be using 2 strands of floss for this project.
2. Thread your needle with the white floss and start stitching in the center of the Aida cloth. Follow the pattern below to create the coffee cup.
3. Once you have finished stitching the coffee cup, switch to the black floss and stitch the coffee beans.
4. Finish the pattern by stitching the leaves and stem with the green floss.
5. Once you have finished stitching the pattern, knot the ends of the floss and trim any excess thread.

Tips

- If you're having trouble following the pattern, you can always refer to the image of the finished product.
- Don't be afraid to experiment with different colors of floss.

- If you make a mistake, don't worry! Just carefully unpick the stitches and start again.
- Once you have finished stitching the pattern, you can frame it or use it to decorate a pillow, tote bag, or other item.

Congratulations! You have now completed your first cross stitch project. We hope you enjoyed this 'Need More Coffee' cross stitch pattern. If you're looking for more easy cross stitch patterns for beginners, be sure to check out our other blog posts.
